

Full speed ahead – Succession found for BOCKWOLDT Getriebemotorenwerk

Bad Oldesloe. 4th April, 2017. The long-established company BOCKWOLDT, Bad Oldesloe, Germany, will now be run by a new management team: Joh. W. von Eicken and Dr.-Ing. Felix Oehme are the successors of Carl-Michael Bockwoldt. “The extensive experience of Joh. W. von Eicken and the technical know-how of Dr. Oehme have set the course to successfully advance BOCKWOLDT Getriebemotorenwerk, as defined by its 100 year tradition“, Carl-Michael Bockwoldt, General Manager to date, says happily.

Joh. W. von Eicken is the CEO, while Dr. Oehme will take over the commercial and technical management on site, as general manager. During the first few months, the promoted mechanical engineer will be supported by Mr. Bockwoldt, who will be ready to offer help and advice for the company take-over. Numerous measures for quality improvement and process optimization are planned and will be implemented at short notice.

The new name of BOCKWOLDT GmbH & Co. KG is BOCKWOLDT Getriebemotorenwerk GmbH & Co. KG.

It is for more than 100 years already that BOCKWOLDT customers can rely on quality and service, on the specialist field of Geared Motors. Founded in 1914 by the engineer Carl Bockwoldt in Hamburg, the successful family-run company is now represented all over the world.
